

Call for Papers

AI in Business and Economics

The Economic Perspective on Artificial Intelligence (EPEAI)

6 - 7 March 2023

Ruhr West University of Applied Sciences,
Mülheim an der Ruhr, Germany

AI technology is progressing worldwide. The aim of the interdisciplinary conference is to analyse and evaluate the economic drivers and consequences of the diffusion of AI for companies, users and society. The conference offers various tracks and opportunities for exchange and discussion. Accepted, presented and revised contributions will be published in the conference proceedings.

Conference Tracks

Submissions can be made for theoretical and empirical contributions to the following tracks:

- Micro- and Macroeconomic Framework: Diffusion and Competition, Productivity and Labour Markets, Ethics and Regulation of AI.
- Entrepreneurship and AI-driven Business Models and Strategies.
- Managing AI: KPIs and Digital Transformation.
- AI in Business Administration and Processes, e.g. Finance, Accounting, Controlling, Human Resources, Production and Quality Management.
- AI-driven Marketing.
- Open session: The Long-Term View.

If you have questions about submitting contributions or are not sure whether your topic fits, please contact us at info@epe.ai. We are more than happy to help you.

Submission Instructions

Abstracts can be submitted via submissions@epe.ai until 30 September 2022. Please provide the following information:

- Contribution title
- An abstract of 300 to 500 words
- Name and e-mail addresses of all authors involved
- Placement in one of the tracks mentioned

Please note that only abstracts of papers that have not yet been published and are not about to be published prior to the conference can be accepted.

Review Process

After submission of the abstract, feedback from the scientific committee will be provided no later than 31 October 2022.

If the contribution is not accepted, the authors will be given a two-week deadline to improve the contribution. Accepted papers can be presented in full at the conference.

Authors are expected to be available as discussants for another paper.

Presentations at the conference

Each author or each team of authors will be given up to 20 minutes for their presentation during the conference. After that, a discussant will present feedback on the paper, followed by a discussion with the audience.

Additionally, there will be a poster session.

Publication

All accepted papers will be published in the conference proceedings, prospectively by De Gruyter. Please note that the revised paper must be submitted by 30 April 2023.

Template and style guide will be provided in advance.
